TURSI DIGITAL NOMADS

BUILDING COMMUNITIES SINCE 2021

Tursi Digital Nomads is a regeneration project in South Italy based on remote working.

We establish remote workers' communities in Tursi's old village to contribute to reevaluating its historical heritage and its repopulation.

WHAT WE OFFER

We offer the ideal experience for a digital nomad with a perfect blend of productivity, exploration, and connection.

You will find a supportive environment for focused work, exciting opportunities to discover the local culture, and a chance to build meaningful friendships with like-minded individuals.

HOW TO REACH US

There are several transportation options to reach Tursi:

BY PLANE

The nearest airport to Tursi is in Bari, located approximately 130 kilometers away. Low-cost airlines like Ryanair, EasyJet, and Volotea, offer connections to several European destinations. You can also land in Napoli and take a bus from the Central train station to Tursi (every day at 14:00 - appr. 3h).

BY BUS

Bus companies operate routes to Tursi, including InterSaj, Sita Sud and Flixbus. Connections are available from major cities in Italy, such as Naples, and Bari.

BY CAR

Coming by car offers flexibility for exploring the region. Tursi is a 3-hour trip from Naples and 2 hours from Bari.

There's free parking everywhere in Tursi.

SHUTTLE SERVICE

Upon Request

We can arrange your transfer from Bari Airport by car or shuttle bus.

Cost: TBD

GET TO KNOW US

We're Salvatore and Maria
the team behind Tursi Digital Nomads.

This project is a chance to share our passions: Salvatore, a true "Lucano" (local from Basilicata) with a heart full of his region's traditions, and Maria, a seasoned digital nomad with a dream of fostering vibrant communities for remote workers.

Think of us as your Italian hosts and fellow nomads, rolled into one! We understand the challenges and joys of the remote work lifestyle, and we're thrilled to offer a summer experience that blends seamless productivity with the magic of Basilicata.

So, ditch the usual routine and join us for a summer of stunning landscapes, warm hospitality, and a supportive community.

We can't wait to welcome you to Tursi!

SALVATORE GULFO
Founder/President

Salvatore is a software engineer working remotely as a Consultant. During Covid and while he was working 100% from home he decided to create a coworking space inside a former monastery in his village, Tursi. He is widely known as "il Presidente."

MARIA VASLI
Community Manager

Maria is a Marketing Manager from Greece. After traveling through digital nomad communities for a few years, she realized that she wanted to bring people together and create unforgettable experiences for them. You will always find her looking for the best places to eat.
